

Women: Respect, Support, Elevate

(& have some fun)

Do you try to be Superwoman at work, in your life and for your friends/family? Join the MSU Women's Resource Center and Office for Inclusion and Intercultural Initiatives for a lunchtime conversation on how to survive and thrive for yourself, while also empowering and advocating for other women in your life and workplace. Keynote presenter: Venice Smith, Office for Inclusion and Intercultural Initiatives.

Thursday, September 10, 2015

12:00 Noon — 1:00PM

MSU Union Building,

Lake Ontario Room (3rd floor)

Free and open to all

What would life be like if we were more respectful to, supportive of and elevated one another? This workshop will give participants the tools to embrace difference, recognize discrimination and become change agents, even without the cape.

Let's Talk.

RSVP to wrc@msu.edu or 517-353-1635.

Accommodations for persons with disabilities may be requested by contacting the WRC at 517-353-1635. Requests will be honored whenever possible.
